Area Votes Tomorrow On Con-Con Delegates

Eight Candidates in 53rd District Race; Four to Be Chosen

Voters of the ten-county 53rd Senatorial District, which includes the Quad-Cities, will go to the polls tomorrow to nominate four candidates as delegates to the Illinois Constitutional Convention.

The district's 144 polling places—58 of them in the four Quad-City townships—will open at 6 a.m. and close at 6 p.m.

Similar primary elections will be held statewide in all of the state's 58 Senatorial districts in which more than four candidates have filed as delegate candidates.

Vote For Two

Each voter may mark for two candidates, but the four candidates receiving the highest number of votes in tomorrow's balloting will compete in a runoff election Nov. 18 for two delegate positions.

Nine candidates will appear on the ballot in the 53rd District race, but one of them, Charles E. Meador, of Granite City, announced his withdrawal from the campaign a week ago. Meador was the only candidate from the Quad-City area. Of the remaining eight persons seeking nomination, four are from Edwardsville, two from Alton, one from Troy and one from Wood River.

Meador said he was withdrawing from the race because of personal reasons which had nothing to do with a question about Meador's residency requirements which arose shortly before the candidate announced his withdrawal. Meador voted from an East St. Louis address during the latter part of 1968, but he said he pointed this out to the secretary of state's office when he filed his petitions and was told it was no deterrent to his candidacy.

10 Townships in District

The 53rd District is comprised of Granite City, Namekoi, Venice and Chouteau townships in the Quad-City area, and Alton, Edwardsville, Wood River, Godfrey, Pin Oak and Jarvis townships.

The two candidates elected in each of the 58 Senatorial districts Nov. 18 will make up the Constitutional Convention of 116 members. The convention is scheduled to convene in Springfield on Dec. 8.

A constitutional convention has not been held in Illinois since 1920-21 and the last convention was rejected by the voters in a ratification referendum.

In 1924 an effort to call a convention was unsuccessful.

Major issues facing the convention will pertain to reorganizing the legislative, executive and local government entities, but a major task will be revising updating the constitution.

Delegates Get Paid

Delegates to the convention will receive a basic fee of $650 per month for eight months, $25 per day for the first 100 days of convention sessions they attend, plus about $16 daily subsistence fee and travel expense.

Candidates seeking the four nominations subject to tomorrow's primary balloting are: Lucien Ringering, 56, of 977 Whitelaw, Wood River, owner and operator of the Rings Art-Craft Manufacturing Co., is married and has eight children. Ringering has been active in politics for nearly 20 years as former mayor and council member of Wood River.

Mrs. Doreen D. Young, 47, of 3016 Brenne street, Alton, wife of Dr. Lafayette Young Jr. and the mother of five daughters. She is now in her third year as chairwoman of the Madison County Republican party and is.

JESSE S. YBARRA

Speaker on Drug Abuse Charged With Violation

Jesse S. Ybarra, 35, an East St. Louis youth counselor in crime prevention and drug use prevention, was arrested by Venice police Thursday night as a suspect in drug trafficking from St. Louis to Venice.

Arrested with him was Alvin Starks Thompson, 36, of 1100 Calhoun street, Venice.

Venice police said two bottles of paragon were found on each of the men. Five white pills in a cellophane package found on Ybarra, later analyzed by a Madison drugist, were found to be methadone, a narcotic drug, police alleged.

Ybarra and Thompson were arraigned Friday before Magistrate Johnson, who set bond of $5000 each on two charges of narcotics possession against Ybarra and on one similar charge against Thompson. Both were transferred to the Madison county jail at Edwardsville following the arraignment.

Once Active in Narcotics

Ybarra formerly was active with the Narcotic Addicts Rehabilitation Coordinating Organization (Narco) as an institutional director but more recently was engaged as assistant coordinator of "Project Prevention," an East St. Louis organization extending counseling services to schools, churches and social groups, with headquarters at 1023 Pennsylvania avenue.

During his association with Narco, Ybarra had appeared at youth and other gatherings in Granite City as a speaker on the evils of drug usage.

Ybarra also was known to have been employed as a community organizer for the East St. Louis Model City Agency workers, before the city booked Ybarra told them he was unemployed.

Ybarra's arrest climaxed nearly a month of repeated contacts between Venice police and the Madison County Sheriff's Office regarding the direction of Assistant Chief of Police Ralph D. Brawley to intercept a car reported to be bringing drugs to a Venice residence.

Polling places of the Quad-City area for tomorrow's primary election are:

GC Council's Finance Committee Appeals for Economy Measures

A review of city funds by the Finance committee failed to disclose any possible source of $100,000 to $200,000 that will be needed to replace Granite City's collapsing Lynch avenue sanitary sewer line.

Two members of the committee, Chairman Charles W. Moerlein and Alderman R. E. Robertson, met Thursday afternoon with Mayor R. Farney, Controller Robert Stevens and City Atty. Leon Scroggins, and it was learned there is little hope for a recommendation on award of a new sewer line construction contract at tonight's meeting, based on two cost-plus bids received last week.

Alderman Moerlein said the committee will continue its search for funds. "Atty. Scroggins is looking into several legal possibilities on fund transfers," Moerlein said, "but outside of that and any possible federal aid through flood disaster grants, the picture looks bleak."

Economy Urged

Moerlein stressed the need for strict economy measures by the council in curtailing all expenditures possible. "The Finance committee," he pointed out, "was not called upon by the council for a recommendation on the budget adopted in July."

Mayor Partney was more outspoken following the Finance committee session.

"The council won't like it, but it will have to curtail improvements. The city will not be able to buy any large pieces of equipment this year, and we're going to have to limit all expenditures that can."

"Right now," the mayor said, "there are 21 sewer breaks and we're already spent $337,000 for repairs."

Layoffs Before Borrowing

"There will be layoffs for city workers, before the city borrows any money through tax anticipation warrants," the mayor stated.

The city has applications to the Federal Government for $1,200,000 funds based on damage estimates confirmed by federal engineers under the flood disaster program. But the federal government has allocated only $500,000 for Madison and St. Louis.

"We submitted our application as quickly as possible and may have been first, but we do not yet just how much money will be divided," Mayor Partney said.

Moerlein said further meetings of the Finance committee will include Alderman Clyde Boyd, who was called away and unable to attend Thursday's session.

"We know we have the problem of financing the sewer breaks, and we probably will have the added problem this fiscal year of being faced with tax objections on the new tax levy," Moerlein added.

Both he and the mayor noted that the council refusal to increase the tax rate for maintenance of sewers, while not a cure-all, aggravated the city's financial problem.

Senator Smith Hoping To End Highway Freeze

New U.S. Senator Ralph T. Smith will make elimination of the federally-tax-aided state highway construction "freeze" in Madison and St. Clair counties one of his initial objectives, he said Saturday. He had an opportunity to discuss it Thursday afternoon with U.S. Attorney General Mitchell, after voting Thursday on the new national defense budget.

Quad-Cityans were among those welcoming him back Friday evening in Alton. He had been sworn in Thursday morning in Washington and conferred with President Nixon Friday.

He noted Saturday that the road fund freeze is costing lives through traffic fatalities and said it is particularly ironic in view of the state license and gasoline tax increase being paid here.

Sen. Smith was greeted at the Bethalto airport Friday night by a band and 600 well-wishers and was honored at a reception by the Greater Alton Association of Commerce following an auto parade.

Driver Dies as Car Hits Pole in Venice; Girl, 15, is Fatality

Two persons—a motorist and a 15-year-old girl who was a passenger on a motorcycle—were killed in separate traffic accidents in the Quad-City area during the weekend as authorities reported a total of 24 traffic mishaps. Eighteen persons were injured.

The driver of an auto which went out of control and crashed into a utility pole was killed and two passengers in the car were injured on South Fourth street in Venice at 5:45 p.m. Thursday.

Arthur N. Robinson, 22, of Brooklyn, driver of the car, was pronounced dead at the accident scene by Deputy Coroner Edward Werner.

Taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital by ambulance were Barry Sanford, 20, Brooklyn, who suffered scalp lacerations and was in a semi-conscious condition, and Ivory Scott, 24, of 307 Hill street, Eagle Park Acres, who suffered abrasions to the forehead and left leg. Both were x-rayed and admitted for further treatment.

Venice police said Robinson was headed south on Fourth street and was passing another car at a point just north of Kerr street when he apparently lost control of the car.

The auto swerved across the highway, striking and knocking down two wooden poles that help support the Illinois Terminal railroad highway. Police said the car was totally wrecked.

Robinson was the son of Orelia Hall of Brooklyn. His remains were taken to an East St. Louis funeral home for arrangements. Coroner Robert Thomas has scheduled an inquest for tonight.

location about three times a week.

Brawley said Venice officers "narrowly missed" making an earlier arrest when a car they sought went to St. Louis over McKinley Bridge but apparently returned to Illinois by some other route.

Waited on Bridge
Police Chief John Essington said he received a call Thursday evening that a car fitting the description of the one being sought had used the McKinley Bridge, headed to St. Louis. Police waited at the bridge toll booth until the suspected car returned and overtook it at Main street and Bremen avenue, where police said Ybarra and Thompson were arrested at 8:35 p.m.

Brawley said he had received information that narcotic was being used for "dope" shots at a Venice address. It is a prescription drug in Illinois, but can be brought in Missouri drug stores by merely giving a name and address.

The officer explained that narcotic contains a reasonably heavy opium content and can be used with a hypodermic needle after a "cooking" process in which most of the liquid and foreign elements are boiled away, leaving a heavy opium derivative.

In addition to the charge of possession of narcotics, Ybarra also was charged with improper display of an auto license plate, police reported. They said the rear license plate on the car, a 1964 model, was bent to the extent that it was unreadable.

Parked Auto Struck
An auto driven by Edward L. Mullins, 3274 Westchester drive, struck the rear of the auto of William P. Sternberg, 2311 Adams street, parked in front of his home at 11:25 a.m. Sunday. Mullins said something rolled off of the dashboard and he attempted to catch it.

Collision on Lot
A service station parking lot collision at 2 p.m. Saturday, at 10th street and Madison avenue damaged the front of the car of Carolyn Stephens, 2663 Nameoki drive and the left rear of the auto of Ethel Long, 2828 East 25th street, who was backing at the time.

Puppets to Trace Telephone History Here on Sept. 29

Southwestern Bell's new Theatre, an exhibit trailer featuring "little people," will be in Granite City on Sept. 29 for a one-day stand at the Nameoki Village shopping center on Nameoki road.

The "little people" are hand-crafted puppets that seem to come alive—with no strings attached—as the history of telephone is told in song and story.

"This is probably one of the most unique traveling exhibits anywhere in the United States," J. W. Smith, manager for Southwestern Bell, reports. "The puppets make the exhibit a treat for youngsters, but sophisticated, tongue-in-cheek treatment of historical and scientific events, will appeal to adults as well."

Even a Sneezing Computer
Activated by 53 small electric motors, the 13 performing puppets animate the story about communications in a series of six vignettes. The stories range from Alexander Graham Bell's first telephone conversation to a sneezing computer that has just diagnosed a patient's illness via telephone lines.

TeleTheatre visitors, using telephone handsets to hear the commentary, will see puppets come to life as animated phones—from the old 1890 crank type, charmed by the skunky "flapper" model of the 1920s, to a progressive trio of ultra-modern phones which sing and dance their "thing."

Visitors will also have a chance to see a hologram. Through laser photography, a flat photographic plate provides a three-dimensional view of an object photographed by this new process.

Warren Avenue Mishap
At the auto of Laura Dix, 2829 Warren avenue, was backed in the 2900 block of Warren avenue at 11:10 p.m. Friday, it collided with the parked car of Charles Holman, 2909 Warren.

Area Carpenters Still Striking; To Meet Thursday

A strike of carpenters affiliated with the Madison and Tri-County district councils went into its sixth day today with the complete shutdown of all construction jobs under contract by firms associated with the Southern Illinois Builders Association.

The strike began last Wednesday to end a seven-week working trade under which the carpenters continued to work while other large crafts unions were striking to enforce contract demands. The carpenters now are the only trades workers without a new contract.

The strike has shut down the St. Elizabeth Hospital construction job here, as well as a construction job at the A. O. Smith Corp. plant here.

Union officials and representatives of SIBA reported no progress in a negotiation session Thursday. Another session is scheduled Thursday morning.

The striking carpenters have won jobs in a 12 county area. The Tri-County district council represents about 1700 men and the Madison county district council has about 1400 members.

University Plans Operating Budget Of $105 Million

An internal operating budget of $105,740,425 was approved at SIU-SW Friday by the Southern Illinois University board of trustees. It will operate the Carbondale and Southern campus complexes for the fiscal year 1969-70.

The internal budget is $26,895,470 larger than the allocations for the 1968-1969 fiscal year.

President Delyte W. Morris told the board that the increase is to provide for increased enrollment, salary adjustments, cost of operation and maintenance of new buildings, a 6 percent generally higher operating costs resulting from increases in prices of goods and services.

The university's anticipated operating income for the year is shown as $78,704,048 from legislative appropriation and tuition charges. $12,917,045 from operation of auxiliary enterprises, such as residence halls; and $41,170,000 in restricted accounts, including $1,022,500 in general student activity fees.

Personal services will account for approximately 78.5% of the state-appropriated funds, slightly less than last year.

Budget allocations for 1969-1970 were approved by the board as:

Education and general expenses, $80,844,548; Auxiliary Enterprises, $12,966,377; University Student Activities, $1,022,500; and Student Aid (scholarships, fees and fellowships) $1,007,000.

Simon on 20-Man U. S. Demo Policy Committee

Illinois Lieutenant Governor Paul Simon has been appointed to the 20-member Policy Council executive committee of the Democratic National Party, Democratic National Chairman Fred Harris announced during the weekend.

Simon, the first person in Illinois history to be elected lieutenant governor simultaneously with a governor of an opposite political party, is Illinois' sole representative on the Policy Council's executive committee, Harris said.

Harris, who presided over a meeting of the Democratic National Committee when he announced Simon's appointment, designated former Vice-President Hubert Humphrey chairman of the committee.

Harris and U.S. Senator Edmund Muskie of Maine, 1968 Democratic nominee for vice president, will serve as co-vice chairmen.

Harris said Simon is the only lieutenant governor in the nation to be named to the Policy Council's executive committee.

Area Directory Of Manufacturers Completed Here

The only directory of its type ever produced on manufacturers in this region has been published by the Illinois Metro East Corporation, a local industrial development group.

Compiled in cooperation with the Chambers of Commerce of the Tri-Cities of Alton, Belleville, East St. Louis, Edwardsville and Wood River, the 68-page directory lists information on 388 manufacturing plants in the Madison-St. Clair counties area.

The information given for each plant includes name, address, phone number, executive in charge of the plant, sales manager and purchasing agent, products produced, date started in this region, and number of employees.

The directory has four parts. There is an alphabetical listing of all plants in the two counties, a listing of the plants by the products they produce, a listing of the plants by the major communities in which they are found, and a listing of the plants by their number of employees.

The directory is described as the first and only comprehensive investigation into the number, kinds of manufacturing plants in the entire area. It will be used by existing and potential manufacturers to determine suppliers and markets within the region.

The committee in charge of developing the directory of manufacturers was composed of Earl Jukes of Collinsville, Howard Colquett of Granite City, Clarence Dunn of Wood River, Ferd Goewert of Belleville, James Reed of East St. Louis and Robert Yeates of Alton.

Copies of the directory are available from the Chambers of Commerce or from Illinois Metro East, 1831 Delmar avenue, Granite City, phone 876-6500.

New Detention Center Topic of Optimists

Circuit Court Judge William Beatty described the facilities and operating policies of recently-opened Haller House, the new Madison county juvenile detention home, when he addressed Granite City Optimists at their weekly luncheon meeting Thursday.

Located on the grounds of the Madison county sanatorium, Edwardsville, the new facility houses the juvenile court, probation and court services departments and the detention center area, Judge Beatty reported.

He said the project needs the support of all citizens—if not direct support, at least kind words for the program being attempted. Service to youth can be undertaken by helping to locate foster homes for children when needed, he added.

Judge Beatty pointed out that up to 21 youths can be housed in the juvenile home, which is classified as temporary housing, not permanent quarters.

The majority of those staying at the center will be in the 8-16 age range. Some may remain a day or two, while others could be housed up to three weeks, he said.

The center is completely self-sufficient, the judge explained, noting that lunchrooms, laundry, recreation areas and sleeping accommodations are provided.

About 35 members attended the meeting, held at the Rose Bowl restaurant. Fred Cunningham, Optimist president, conducted the business session and the guest speaker was introduced by Gene H. Sternberg, program chairman.

John L. "Jerry" McDonald, who will assume office as club president after Oct. 1, discussed plans for the Optimist "Fun Fair" project, which will feature foot races for boys and girls near the Wilson Park ice rink pavilion.

SOCIETY

Miss Carolyn Ellis Becomes Bride of Rev. Wm. Simmons

Miss Carolyn Ellis, a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Albert W. Ellis, 2969 Highway 3, and Rev. William Simmons, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Simmons, 457 East Spruce street, East Alton, were married Friday evening at Bethel Chapel Pentecostal Church.

The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by the Rev. Kenneth Brand, assisted by the bride's father, and the reception following was held in the Fellowship Hall of Niedringhaus United Methodist Church. The church altar was simply decorated with greenery.

Miss Rebecca Maynard presided at the organ and accompanied the soloist, Miss Debra Rich, as she sang "Always Faithful, Ever True," "To Be Used by God" and "O Perfect Love."

Miss Joyce Shipp was maid of honor, and Mrs. Don Stewart, a sister of the bride, and Miss Sandra Simmons, the bridegroom's sister, were bridesmaids. Deronda McDaniel and Martin Attenberger, cousins of the bride, served as flower girl and ring bearer.

A gown of white taffeta and Chantilly lace was worn by the bride. Long tapered sleeves were set into the bodice which featured a sabbina neckline enhanced with sequins and seed pearls. Scalloped lace edged the flounces of the bouffant skirt which swept into a chapel train. A fingertip veil of illusion was held in place with a matching headpiece, and the bride carried a Colonial bouquet of white roses and long white streamers.

Decatur Overcomes Granite City Lead, 12-6

Granite City scored first but the Stephen Decatur Reds had the last laugh Friday at GCHS, defeating the Warriors 12-6.

The Warrior defense, led by Frank Mebelic, only grudgingly gave up yardage and often threw Decatur for losses. But stopping the elusive enemy quarterback, Clifford Taylor, was a problem.

On several occasions Taylor scampered a bout for what seemed like 15 seconds, retaining an option to run or pass into the Warrior secondary.

In all, Decatur passed for 164 yards and made a net running gain of 80 yards. It earned 11 first downs and lost one fumble. The Warriors rushed for 148 yards and scattered passes for 61 yards to total 269 yards for seven first downs. But they suffered three lost fumbles.

Late in the opening quarter, GCHS took the ball on the 50-yard-line on a fumble by Quarterback Taylor.

TD Run by Dave Evans

Warrior Quarterback Dave Evans attempted to pass but his receiver could not secure the ball. On second down, Evans faked a pass and then, keeping the ball, broke loose for a 50-yard touchdown run. The extra point kick missed as the quarter ended.

In the second period, neither team threatened, leaving the score 6-0 at halftime.

Granite City received the three-quarter kickoff and punted on fourth down. Decatur and then GCHS ran out of downs and punted.

Decatur grabbed three first downs on a penalty, a short pass and two end-around runs. A 16-yard quarterback keep brought the ball to the 40-yard-line for first-and-goal-to-go status.

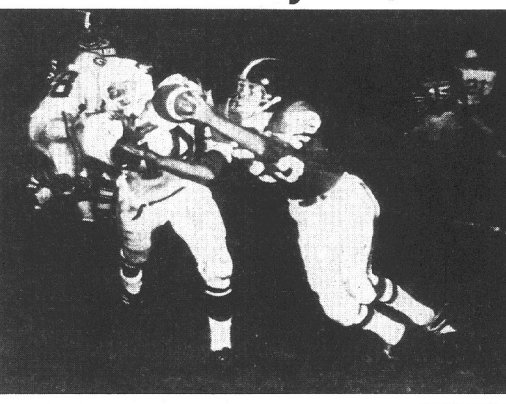

The Reds were forced back to the 16 but, on fourth down shifted to a shotgun style defense for a pass to Halfback John Evans, who scored the tying touchdown. A running two-point conversion failed.

The Warriors received the kickoff, and earned a first down to begin the fourth period at midfield.

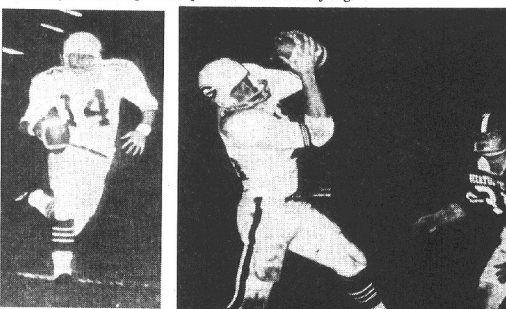

Drive Loses Momentum

After running for another first down, GCHS was held and gave up the ball on the Decatur 31.

The visitors moved for three first downs, employing passes, runs and a deceptive play in which the Reds shifted and snapped the ball to the fullback. Halfback Evans gathered in a flare pass and ran down the sidelines for a TD on a 30-yard play. The two-point run was unsuccessful.

UP FOR GRABS. Warrior Dave Melzer (44) and Stephen Decatur's Mark Lockmiller both lunge for a pass at GCHS Friday night.

QUARTERBACK EVANS breaks loose with the ball for GCHS.

Penalties and inability to hurry the Decatur passer proved frustrating for the Warriors in their initial outing, which followed a practice schedule that was long but hampered by a coaching shortage. Collinsville will visit GCHS next Friday.

3:15 A.M. Dr. Blank on the phone: Mr. M. is having an asthma attack and he must have medicine as soon as possible. In a matter of minutes, Don is at the house of Mr. M. with the life-saving medication.

Recently, we had a request from a Doctor in a small town in southern Illinois for the ingredients of a prescription. The patient had taken all the tablets and thrown away the prescription container. We immediately referred to our FAMILY RECORD FILES which we keep for insurance and tax purposes and within a matter of minutes the Doctor knew what was in the prescription.

Rosary Defense Contains Madison High, 0-0

An irresistible force, the Madison offense, and an immovable object, the Rosary defense, met head-on Friday night on the Trojan gridiron. What happened? Nothing.

Nothing on the scoreboard, at least. But there were four quarters of exciting action that should add MHS in inaugurating its Midwestern Conference campaign in a more satisfying fashion when it visits Highland Friday night.

After winning its opener against O'Fallon, a 27-0 victor last year, Madison again made considerable progress compared to 1968, defeating St. Louis' Rosary Rebels after bowing to them 25-0.

The Catholic Action Conference eleven both stunted and used conventional defensive tactics to keep the Trojans from putting together either a long series of short gains or a single long-distance scoring strike.

Passing Thwarted
MHS was harried into losing the ball on two pass interceptions and a fumble, saw a punt blocked and incurred badly-timed penalties. The Trojans grabbed two enemy fumbles and snarled one Rosary pass.

Neither team could move effectively through the air but had moderate success on the ground except when the end zone beckoned.

After Rosary threatened in the opening period, Madison advanced to the opposing 12-yard line seconds before halftime. A 15-yard penalty on line play prompted two predictable and unsuccessful passes.

The tie seemed in jeopardy near the close of the fourth quarter when Rosary moved 63 yards to the Trojan seven, aided by a 33-yard run by halfback Mark Henry. A pitchout then lost 15 yards.

On fourth down, End Mike Boehm reached the end zone and turned for a pass, but Quarterback Kevin Kinsella threw too high for him to reach.

WELL PROTECTED POCKET is provided for Trojan quarterback Austin Lewis (left) by Dwayne Shaw (21) and Bob Scott (62) to permit a pass. Madison and Rosary played to a scoreless tie.

Named Foreman of Jury Plan Men's Basketball

James H. Swigert, 1226 Grand avenue, was named foreman of a new Madison county grand jury impaneled today by Circuit Court Judge James O. Monroe in Edwardsville. The 33 members were sworn in by Willard Portell, clerk of the circuit court. Swigert is employed as an electrician at the Lincoln division of Miles Laboratories.

Polish Church Holds Party for Members

A party was held for members and guests of Sacred Heart Polish National Catholic Church Saturday night in the parish hall as a follow-up to the church's recent three-day Polka Festival.

Food and refreshments were served. Brief remarks were presented by Rev. Andrew Philip, pastor. About 50 persons attended.

Wagner 7-Up to Move; Drivers Back on Jobs

Seventeen striking truck drivers of the Wagner Seven-Up Bottling Co., 204 State street, Madison, returned to their jobs today pending further discussions of their job status under a plan to move all operations of the plant to St. Louis this week.

William Harris, manager of the Wagner plant, said the bottling operations and offices of the Madison firm will be closed at the end of the day's business Thursday and will be transferred to the Taylor Seven-Up Co. of St. Louis, which purchased the Wagner firm recently.

The Wagner firm employed about 50 persons, including drivers, Harris said. The drivers went on strike last Thursday because of company plans to retain only 12 of the drivers working at the Madison plant and to transfer them to the St. Louis operation as new drivers, according to Arthur Krause, business representative of Teamsters Local 525.

Krause said this means that some of the drivers who have been with Wagner from ten to 20 years would lose all of their seniority.

MORE ABOUT Two Killed

rear of an auto driven by Eva Sheridan, Collinsville, at 3:45 p.m. Sunday on Vandalia street in Collinsville.

Operator of the motorcycle, Robert Howard, 16, of Maryville, was admitted to the hospital here with injuries to the head and knees. Collinsville police said the Sheridan woman was making a left turn at the time.

Six Injured in Crash

Six persons were hurt in the 2300 block of Pontoon road at 10:35 p.m. Friday in a head-on crash between the westbound car of James Scaturro, 17, of 4210 Maryville road, and east-bound auto of Robert Culberk, 21, of 2589 Spaulding avenue.

Police filed charges against Scaturro of driving on the wrong side of the street and illegally transporting liquor. He had four passengers in his auto; Culberk was alone.

Listed as unconscious when they were admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital were:

All were listed in good condition today.

Also admitted to the hospital were Steve Pence, 18, of 100 Central avenue, Mitchell, cerebral concussion, cuts and bruises to right leg and knee and x-rays of back, head and knee; and Miss Lynn Dyer, 16, of 3216 Nameoki road, multiple facial contusions, head injury and x-rays of head and back.

Culberk was released from the hospital after being treated for forehead and right knee abrasions and pains in the left shoulder.

Each car sustained extensive front end damage and had to be towed away.

Four Persons Injured

Four persons were injured when an auto driven by Clarence Bradley, 47, of 1020 Calhoun street, Venice, struck the left side of a car driven by Robert Barnhart, 4908 Kirkpatrick Homes, at 3:15 p.m. Sunday at the intersection of Madison and Madison avenues.

A traffic signal was knocked down and a fire hydrant was broken.

Taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital were Bradley and three passengers in his auto—Cynthia, 11, Clarissa, 12, and Beverly Cross, 13, daughters of Mrs. Albert Cross, 165 Viola Jones Homes, Venice. Clarissa Cross was admitted for treatment, and the others were treated and released.

Melvin Myers, 22, of St. Louis, was injured seriously at 10:30 p.m. Thursday when his car, headed east on McKinley bridge in Venice, crashed into the guard rail of the Illinois Terminal Highline. Meyers was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was treated for lip lacerations, dislocated teeth, abrasions to the forehead, chest and knees and bruises to the back of the head. He was transferred to DePaul Hospital, St. Louis.

Police said Meyers apparently failed to make the curve onto the main bridge deck. Meyers' car was damaged extensively.

Robert Snyder, 15, of 2822 Denver street, suffered two fractured vertebrae at about midnight Friday night when his auto went out of control on Slough road, hit a culvert and overturned into a vacant field.

He was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital, having also suffered possible right shoulder and chest injuries. A passenger, John Cundiff of Cayuga street, escaped apparent injury.

Elbert Lowery, 33, St. Louis, was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital after being knocked unconscious at 6:30 p.m. Saturday in an auto mishap on Chain of Rocks road a quarter-mile east of St. Thomas road. His injuries included bruises to the upper left arm and both knees.

Alone in the eastbound car, he had attempted to pass another vehicle. His auto went out of control and struck a utility post, state police said.

Earl Boyd, 26, of 14 Grouzer Homes, was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 10:35 p.m. Friday for injuries sustained when his parked car was struck by another auto on Ewing avenue between Market street and Collinsville avenue in Madison. Boyd was treated for neck

Taverns Must Close During Primary Vote

Taverns will be required to close during the balloting in tomorrow's primary election for delegates to the Illinois Constitutional Convention, State's Attorney R. W. Griffith said today.

Griffith said tomorrow's primary comes under state laws prohibiting sale of liquor during election hours. Polling places will be open tomorrow from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. Some tavern owners in the Quad-City area had questioned the necessity of closing since the balloting did not involve the election of elective officials.

pains, was x-rayed and released. Police said his car was struck by one driven by Anna C. Giese, 1520 Venice avenue, who reported her auto side-swiped the Boyd car as she was southbound on Ewing.

Mrs. Evelyn McClellan, 38, of 421 Weaver street, Madison, was admitted at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 9:55 a.m. Sunday with injuries incurred when she struck the windshield of an auto. Details of the accident are unavailable.

The woman was in a dazed condition and complained of pain in the neck and left hand. She had abrasions to the right knee and cuts to the lower lip.

Group Home from State Beverage Convention

The 84th annual state convention of the Illinois Retail Licensed Beverage Association was held at the St. Nicholas Hotel, Springfield, last week, with local delegates returning here Thursday.

The convention opened with a welcome by the Mayor Horwarth of Springfield, and guest speakers included Paul Powell, secretary of state, Rep. Sam Valdeabene, Donald Adams, chairman of the Illinois Commission, and Fr. Don Murray, director of the Sky Ranch for Boys in South Dakota, which is sponsored by the liquor industry.

Presentation of a plaque from the March of Dimes was made to the state association for a contribution of $20,000 this year, bringing the total of collections and contributions of the various areas and state to $180,000 in the past ten years. The money is being used in research on birth defects, and a progress report was given by William Haracz of Chicago, who presented the plaque to Bert Nickerson of Moline, president.

Charles Hester, president of the local area, Area 49, was re-elected vice-president of District Nine, which covers the southern portion of resolutions concerning laws discriminatory to the liquor industry.

Importance of voting in the "con con" primary and general elections was stressed, along with knowing the candidates and what they stand for.

Those of Area 49 attending besides Hester were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hedges, Mr. and Mrs. Jordan Rapoff, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Renzack, and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Stratton and Gene Frith, all of Granite City, Ed Sprajcar of Madison, and Mr. and Mrs. Hal Worrell of Cottage Hills.

Quad-Cityans Reviving String Melodies of Balkans

After more than three decades, a group of old friends—born in the Macedonia-Bulgaria area and residing in the Quad-Cities—has brought out from retirement stringed musical instruments first learned as children overseas.

Known as the "Bulgarian String Melodies," the participants are finding much enjoyment in reviving the traditional music of their native land and also are delighting young and old of the Balkan heritage in this region.

Engaged in non-musical careers and professions, they are not "moonlighters" in the usual sense but have become active again for two charitable purposes—aid to senior citizens and assistance to the remodeled hall of the Holy Trinity Bulgarian Eastern Orthodox Church.

Not senior citizens themselves, they are looking ahead to the years when a new generation will need to take over if Bulgarian music is to be perpetuated in the Quad-Cities.

Through their example, they hope that their children, grandchildren and others will become familiar with and more attached to Balkan folk music. When the day comes that they once again put the mandolins and other instruments into their cases, they hope that a new musical group will be ready to take over.

Perpetuate Balkan Music
"Our prime interest and hope lies in the desire to keep alive and perpetuate the music and dances of the Balkan countries in the minds of the younger generation," just as have the Irish, Germans, Scots, Asian group and others, the spokesmen related.

Dance Planned Oct. 11
Beginning at 8 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 11, the group will play for another dance at the Holy Trinity Church hall. The festivities will end at 1 a.m.

The public will be able to dance and also view costumed folk dancers.

"We will feature polkas, waltzes and horas—folk dances from Bulgaria, Greece, Serbia, Romania and Armenia, plus dance this year took place on May 2 in the new beautifully decorated, air-conditioned church hall at 13th street and Madison avenue. Held in conjunction with the church, it was very successful and enjoyable," the spokesmen related.

They will be accepted through Jan. 31, 1970, from eligible business concerns which have suffered substantial economic injury as a result of the natural disaster.

The loans may be made directly through the SBA or in immediate participation or guaranteed basis.

Proceeds of any loan made are to be used solely to effect relief from economic injury attributable to the disaster. Loan purposes for the most part will be confined to working capital for continued operations.

Amount and maturity of the loans will be determined in light of the individual circumstances of the applicant and ability to repay. Interest chargeable may vary from 3% on the Small Business Administration's share of the loan to 9% on the bank's participation or guaranteed basis.

CYS Booth to Explain Hazards of Drug Use

Although most booths at this weekend's "United Fun Fair" at the Wilson Park rink-pavilion will feature light-hearted projects, such as games and giveaway items, at least two areas in the pavilion will be dedicated to a topical, but deadly serious subject—drugs.

Sponsored by Coordinated Youth Services, with cooperation of Del. Sgt. Joseph Nemeth of the Granite City police department, an educational program and narcotics dealing with narcotics will enlighten those inspecting the exhibit area.

Parents and others wishing to learn more about the incidence of drug usage among teenage youths and older delinquents may gain first-hand knowledge at the CYS booths from a man who "has been there and back."

Irving Miles, an ex-convict and former drug user, now uses the voice of experience to counsel youthful offenders who may be heading toward a life of crime, with or without the influence of narcotics.

Facts behind one of today's leading problems—increased drug addiction—will be explained by slides and narrative readings, Miles said.

Paraphernalia used by the addict, loaned by the Granite City police department, will be displayed, and literature published by the Illinois Narcotics Control Agency will be distributed to the public.

Miles, who is available for consultations at the CYS office, 125 Niedringhaus avenue, said Friday that he would welcome questions by parents or youth during the two-day show.

The "Fun Fair," sponsored by the Tri-Cities United Fund, will be open from 1 to 9 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Sally Jackson Named To Scholarship List

Miss Sally A. Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith L. Jackson, 22 Oaklawn drive, is among 22 seniors from 15 southern Illinois schools who have been named semi-finalists in the 1969-70 National Merit Scholarship competition.

A senior at Granite City high school where she is concentrating her studies in calculus and accelerated mathematics, Miss Jackson, 17, is among 15,000 high school seniors throughout the nation who will compete for two types of scholarships in the finals.

About 2000 scholarships that pay up to $1500 per year for up to four college years are available as well as 1000 scholarship awards of $1000 each.

The semi-finalists were selected from about 743,000 students, representing over 12,250 schools, who took the scholarship test last February. They were chosen on the basis of their achievement, high school grades and test scores.

Financial need is not a factor in selection of winners. Finalists are chosen from their academic and leadership record, personal achievement and abilities, the school's characterization of the applicant and the test scores.

Each finalist must be endorsed by his own school, achieve top scores in the Scholastic Aptitude Testing program and meet other eligibility requirements. Scholarships are not allocated by state.

Representing less than one percent of the graduating seniors in the United States, about 97% of the semi-finalists are expected to become finalists in the program, a spokesman at the local high school said today.

Venice Brothers in Close Battle Areas

Terry M. Cooper, 21, of Venice, who now is serving his third "hitch" in combat service in Vietnam has been promoted to sergeant in his Marine unit now stationed in the Dong Ha area, according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Cooper, 306 Jefferson street, Venice. Mr. Cooper is a Venice police patrolman.

At the same time, Charles R. Cooper, 19, Terry's brother, has been moved with his Marine unit into the Phu Bai area about 40 miles from where Terry is located. The boys' father said he learned from his sons that while they have not had an opportunity to get together personally, they are allowed to talk to one another by field telephone about once a month.

Terry Cooper has been in service three years and has served more than two of them in Vietnam. After completing his first year of Vietnam service, he returned home on leave and signed up for another six-month stretch. When that ended, he came home on leave again and signed up for another six months.

Charles Cooper enlisted in the Marines about a year ago and was sent to Vietnam three months ago.

County Nursing Home, Jail Hit by Jurors

The Madison county grand jury criticized conditions at the county nursing home and county jail in its latest report to the circuit court.

The jury, which convened last May 26, found the facilities at the nursing home were clean and well kept, but warned of a possible fire hazard and a tragedy which could ensue.

The jury remarked that it is vital that patients be moved without any further delay to facilities at the county tuberculosis sanatorium, slated for conversion into a nursing home, and added that any further delay would amount to gross negligence.

Jurors found the sanatorium to be in excellent condition and clean and could see no reason for the delay in converting the premises into a nursing home. The jurors recommended that the next grand jury conduct a hearing, calling all responsible officials to determine the cause for the delay.

County Jail

The county jail was found to be well kept despite its age, and the food was found to be excellent and wholesome, but overcrowded conditions were noted. The jury offered some conclusions on the recent jail break involving five dangerous inmates.

It was improper for jail authorities to leave certain doors open to accommodate inmates because of the weather, it said. If heat might affect the health of any inmate, this could have been handled on an individual basis.

Adequate precautions and security were not exercised by certain officials in entering various portions of the jail, the jury said, citing it human error. It added that suspension of a jail employee was unjustified.

The person responsible for the jail was not on the premises at the time of the jail break, the jury said, and it is uncertain what measures were taken to delegate such responsibility to

The ventilation problem goes to the physical structure of the jail and should have been dealt with in a different manner, the jury said. It also found that the parking area at the rear of the jail is left open and that the area should be fenced and shut off to the public.

The sheriff has taken some measures to improve security at the jail, the jury reported, as one door is closed before another is open, two men are required to enter a cell and better isolation of prisoners is provided.

The grand jury recommended the urgent need for a new, modern, humane and secure jail with adequate personnel to run it.

The jurors reported they lacked ample opportunity to investigate the adequacy of crime protection in unincorporated areas of the county and questioned the sufficiency of the current force of deputies.

It was recommended that the next grand jury initiate hearings immediately to determine what must be done to correct conditions, and that supervisors and other officials be subpe-

U. S. Court Suit Scheduled on Road Fund Freeze

Petition for a writ of mandamus directed against the U. S. Department of Justice was being prepared today as a step toward ending the federal government's freeze on highway fund allocations to Madison and St. Clair counties.

Decision to take the matter into federal court was reached Thursday afternoon in a meeting of representatives of the Greater Alton Association of Commerce and the Wood River Chamber of Commerce. The two groups retained Attorney Irving Wiseman to prepare the case and locate plaintiffs on whose behalf the case will be filed.

Robert Yeates, executive director of the Alton association, said it was hoped a court case would not be necessary "but it now seems that will be the only way to get the Department of Justice to do its job." Yeates noted that Madison county taxpayers are paying taxes without getting any local benefits in highway construction. The money is being used elsewhere, he said.

Cost $54 Millions
The fund freeze, since it was initiated about 14 months ago, has cost Madison and St. Clair counties about $54 millions in highway construction work, according to Robert Kromet, chief engineer of Highway District 8 at French Village.

The federal highway administration ordered the freeze because of a lack of minority workers on highway projects and because of high construction costs in the Madison-St. Clair county area. The government never has detailed specific requirements that must be met, nor has it indicated in recent months whether improvements have been made, Yeates said.

A mandamus proceeding would force the justice department to bring all factors of the freeze into public view. Highway officials say that virtually no highway work with exception of emergency repairs of a safety nature, have been made in the two counties.

14th 'Firemen's Ball' Set Saturday, Oct. 4

The 14th annual "Firemen's Ball," sponsored by the Granite City fire department, will take place Saturday, Oct. 4, at the Venice-Madison American Legion Dugout, 740 Broadway, Venice.

Engineer Charles Farrell, chairman of this year's benefit event, announced today that tickets costing $1 each are now available from any fireman or at all local firehouses. Dancing will start at 9 p.m. Oct. 4 with music furnished by Art Fickinger and the Sundowns.

Proceeds will be added to the Firefighters Relief and Welfare Fund which aids the families of firemen who may be injured or otherwise incapacitated, Farrell explained. He said that a portion of the money is used to provide additional insurance coverage for the firefighters.

The Granite City fire department, headed by Chief Earl Fronberger, currently has a roster of 38 officers and men. Assisting Farrell with the dance project are Assistant Chief Charles Hileman, Engineer William Patterson and Pipefitter Walner Schmidke.

About 500 Quad-Cityans attend the ball each year, Farrell noted.

Groundbreaking Tomorrow for New Copper Plant

Groundbreaking ceremonies to initiate construction of a copper refinery plant on a 40-acre site at Route 3 and Old Alton road near Mitchell are scheduled at 11 a.m. tomorrow.

The plant will be built by Chemico Metals Corp., an Illinois firm chartered by La Metallo-Chimique S.A. of Brussels, Belgium.

The new metal and chemical industry will employ about 120 workers and produce about 30,000 tons of refined copper per year.

The tract on which the new plant will be located was acquired from Union Electric and is part of the Lewis & Clark Industrial Park area. It is a half mile east of the northern end of the Chain of Rocks canal where a second Tri-City Regional Air District harbor is proposed.

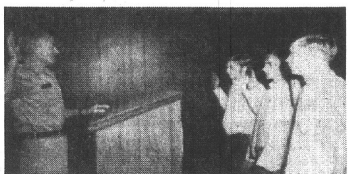

Construction plans call for a 141,000-square-foot building with all building work scheduled for completion by the end of 1970. Extensive railway and roadway facilities will be installed to serve the plant.

Production Next Year
Limited preliminary production operations will begin in the second quarter of next year. Earl Bockstuck, president of Chemico Metals Corp., said company officials will be maintained in Alton while construction work is under way.

The estimated employment of 120 is expected when plant operations reach normal levels. Workers are to be hired from area communities.

Bockstuck said the company will not be seeking highly-specialized labor force and most employees will receive on-the-job training.

In addition to copper, the plant will produce other non-ferrous products which will be

3 Buddies Enlist - Father of One Gives the Oath

Two Granite Cityans and a Collinsville youth recently were sworn into the U. S. Army by the father of the Collinsville enlistee, Sgt. Morris L. Cook, local Army recruiter, reported last week.

Swearing-in ceremonies were conducted in the Mart Building, St. Louis, by Army Lt. Col. Charles G. Gilmore for his son, Larry Gilmore, 19, of Rural Route Two, Collinsville; Barry Lloyd, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lloyd, 2220 East 20th street, and Gus D. Lignoul, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gustave E. Lignoul, 2901 Fortune drive. The three youths, who are good friends, will not continue their Army training together, Sgt. Cook said.

Lignoul and Lloyd were assigned to Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., for basic training. Both ferrous metallic and chemical marketed primarily in the United States. Most raw materials will be of domestic origin. The Lewis & Clark Industrial Park is an area of 800 acres in and north of the Quad-City area, pooled by railroads utilities and landowners to be used for industrial purposes.

Granite Cityans selected stock control and accounting courses at Fort Lee, Va., to follow their initial instruction.

After completing eight weeks of basic training at Fort Polk, La., Gilmore will continue at Fort Wolters, Tex., for 13 weeks of pre-flight instruction, followed by 21 weeks of flight training at Fort Rucker, Ala.

Upon completion of flight training, the Collinsville youth will be commissioned a warrant officer and receive pilot wings. He will serve as a U. S. Army aviator for three years.

A former resident of the Quad-City area, Lt. Col. Gilmore entered the service in 1950 with the rank of private and rose to staff sergeant prior to attending Officers Candidate School in 1953. He has served 28 years in both the active Army and the active Reserve forces.

The officer's older son, Chief Warrant Officer Richard B. Gilmore, is a helicopter pilot and a veteran of service in Vietnam. Presently, he serves as instructor at Fort Wolters, where his brother has been assigned.

CWO Richard Gilmore is married to the former Miss Pamela Towns of Granite City. The couple resides at Mineral Wells, Tex.

August Meter Fines Triple In Total Income of $4638

Collection of parking meter fines in Granite City during August increased only slightly over July revenue, but fines received for meter violations more than tripled fine assessments, the press reported according to a report by the office of City Comptroller Robert Stevens.

Total meter fee income for August amounted to $4638, the largest largest receipts for any single month so far this year. The total collection included $2850 in meter fees and $1788 in fines.

The fee revenue was an increase of $300 over July fee receipts of $2500 and were $100 more than the $2400 collected in August 1968. The fine assessments, however, were up $1275 over the $1513 in fines collected in July and were $235 more than the $1285 fines assessed for August a year ago.

The $1788 in fines was the largest collection for meter violations in any month since October 1967, when revenue from fines amounted to $1797. Fine collections, however, over July revenue, but fines received for meter violations more than tripled fine assessments, the press reported according to a report by the office of City Comptroller Robert Stevens.

The total income for August, $4638 in both fees and fines, was exceeded in April when fees of $3650 and fines of $1063 amounted to $4713.

With meters in operation during 26 days of August, the city's daily average income from meters amounted to $178, also exceeded this year only in April when the daily average was $181 for 26 days operation.

The August revenue increased meter income for this year to $30,518 with $22,820 of it in fees and the balance of $7698 representing fine assessments.

This amount is $274 less than the $31,242 total collected in 1968 when fees and fines amounted to $33,232.

COURTHOUSE CONDITION, UPKEEP UNSATISFACTORY

To the Editor: The Madison County Lawyers' Wives Association held its fall meeting last week (Sept. 16). First on the agenda was a tour of the Madison county courthouse in Edwardsville.

A pastor once said at a Mother's Day observance: "Girls are made of sugar and spice and everything nice. By the time all the sugar and spice are worn off they usually become mothers and wives, and all they have left is everything nice—but that lasts a long time." "Still, each woman is different from all others. Some are chubby while others are skinny. Some are freckled and husky. Some are loud and some are moosey."

"They may be Eskimos, Democrats, secretaries, socialists, bridge club players, fast tax cab drivers or Red Cross ladies. But, mostly, they are just wives and mothers."

"They have husbands to clean up after, children to love and discipline and, most important, houses to turn into homes, wash and mothers cook, clean, wash, mend, dream, punish, wheedle, improvise—and do things go twice as far as any man could."

"When we were little, Mother was everything to us—police department, the board of education, the department of public works, the recreation commission, the finance department, and the court of correction. She was and is a busy person. The only reason she wasn't out of her mind is that mothers have the leadership of Moses, the courage of David, and the patience of Job."

This is what comprised the court touring the courthouse. The object of the tour was to see what is needed as the courthouse, and where the Lawyers' Wives Association could be of help.

Their husbands work in the courthouse, and all citizens of the county use the courthouse. The tour was conducted by the county clerk's office, represented by Miss Dorothy Fink. The efficient procedure of the well-run office was evident.

From there we went to the third floor, Chief Judge Barr's chambers and Courtroom No. 1. The decor and furnishings showed great improvement over other areas on the floor.

However, to these interested mothers and wives, poor housekeeping was everywhere. The custodians were polishing the brass plates on doors covered with layers of dirt—dirt accumulated not only week or last month but last year.

Light fixtures showed dim light, due to the neglect of dust and dirt. Floors were cleaned only where traffic moved.

The women were asked to sit in on a trial just beginning. They listened to the opening statements of the attorneys. While sitting in the back of the courtroom, one could look to the windows, curtained in dust and dirt, sporting Venetian blinds sporting the same apparel.

Walls were crumbling from dampness. You would look up to the impressive judge sitting in front of a blank, barren wall. The only decoration was two wall plaques.

The court reporter was busy recording the trial in session, her poor light shining brightly. We were unable to see the lawyers at the counsel table.

From there, the lawyers directed the state's attorney's offices. To our dismay, these were what could be called below any substandard for offices. That our state's attorney and his staff must work and function under these conditions is deplorable.

Time ran out or our tour would have brought many more deplorable conditions to our attention. We, the Lawyers' Wives, were agast at these conditions in our and your courthouse.

The group left the courthouse and enjoyed a luncheon at SIU. A business meeting was conducted, and a three-hour session of existing conditions at the Madison county courthouse took precedent.

MRS. ARTHUR WENDLER, President, Madison County Lawyers' Wives Association serve them at the present time in Madison county.

There are approximately 150 children in the 64 age bracket needing pre-school training now. There are another 150 or more in the 6-14 age bracket who have no place in the public schools and it is not likely they will have a place 10 years from now.

The 708 Board's response was:

1. They are sympathetic.
2. They think we are doing a fine job for retarded children. They suggest we try the United Fund agencies, knowing full well this is not feasible or open to the public schools.

We cannot believe these men actually think that Mandatory Education Bill 1407 will take care of all the needs of the mentally retarded. It says, in effect, that all retarded children aged 5-21 must be placed in a class for their special education needs.

We know of one large school district in Madison county that prides itself on its special education program for the retarded; but as of the close of the 1968 school year it was housing two or more classes for the severely retarded in basement rooms on concrete floors where the maximum temperature during the winter months is 68 degrees.

The paint was peeling off the walls and there was very little in the way of equipment that parents or the Madison County Association had not provided.

School administrators in this district say this is the best they can do. Must we wait until bond issues are finally passed and classrooms are available?

These children need to now, not 10 years from now.

4. They will consider our request at a closed meeting with no opportunity for parents or experienced Association members to be present to clarify points that it is evident the 708 Board does not understand.

The only area in the county that the Madison County Association does not cover is the Granite City school district. The Granite City Aid to Retarded Children is funded by the Granite City United Fund and serves only the children in the Granite City school district, excluding the mentally retarded in Venice and Madison, many of them black.

All of the Association's present programs are on a voluntary basis, assisted financially by contributions from individuals and a few organizations and much digging down in the parents' pockets.

Since the Madison County Fund and 708 money, the public is not so generous and we well understand that. Parents of retarded children pay taxes for these needed programs as well as for their own.

Even though our Association was largely responsible for getting the Comprehensive Mental Health Act passed in 1965, we deliberately refrained from asking for funds in 1965 and 1967 because the Mental Health Centers and the Specialized Services had established programs and we knew they needed assistance.

However, there are many more needs in Madison county for the retarded and we, the parents, than the three agencies which have been receiving funds from 708 can meet. Our staffs will readily admit this is a fact.

Some of our parents of older retarded children have received help too late from the schools, the mental health centers and Specialized Services. They join us in urging the taxpayers to become aware of the unmet needs.

State institutions are not the answer. Their services should be available to the profoundly retarded who need custodial, round-the-clock care.

Also, do you know that desperate parents have been waiting for state institution lists waiting for as long as 12 years?

Our children can live at home if we have community services. We want them at home.

Private institutions are not the answer, for they are prohibitive except for the very wealthy—average cost $300 to $400 per month—and this does not assure a good program.

It is not even good care. Professional services cannot be provided totally with profits from bake sales, card sales, benefits and door-to-door begging.

We beg you as taxpayers to listen to us. It's your money, too.

Delegate Election Tuesday Vital Because Constitution Greatly Affects Everyone

It has been predicted that the selection of Illinois' constitutional convention delegates set an all-time record for low voter turnout. We hope this is not the case, because revision of the state constitution is important. It can affect the daily lives of all of us in many ways.

Of the names appearing on the ballot, which includes the Quad-Cities and much of Madison county but excludes Collinsville and the north-eastern area, nine names will appear in the primary ballot tomorrow. One of the nine, Charles M. Meador of the Quad-Cities, has withdrawn as an active candidate.

The top four vote-getters will advance to a runoff election Nov. 18 in which two delegates will be chosen.

Delegates then will meet and draw up a proposed constitution to replace the one in effect for the last century. What they produce will be submitted in statewide balloting to be adopted or rejected by the public.

Of the names appearing on the primary ballot, the aspirants who have most impressed us thus far are No. 3, Doreen D. Young; No. 4, Lucien B. Ringering; No. 6, Ray Johnson; and No. 9, Wendell Durr.

Mrs. Young, wife of an Alton doctor, has taken an active interest in government and other community issues and understands the needs of Illinois and this region. Ringering, former Wood River alderman and the father of eight, can speak with experience on the problems of municipalities and taxpayers; he has a student in Granite City grade and high schools, a university scholar, as well as an accountant with a good grasp of revenue issues. Durr, an Edwardsville attorney and YMCA board president, has city and county governmental legal experience that could be helpful in planning new constitutional provisions.

An individual can vote for only two of the candidates on Tuesday. This will necessitate a careful study of the qualifications of the candidates among the eight actively seeking election, but it cannot be helped.

What is of overriding importance is that citizens participate. The election should be positive in nature, rather than by default.

Changes in U. S. Presidential Election Process Need to Be Well Thought Out

Congressional willingness last week to junk the electoral college reflects the scare experienced in November 1968, when a stronger vote for third-party candidate George Wallace could have resulted in non-election of a president by the public.

There also has been displeasure with the on Economic Development; 2, where most officials are appointed by a chief administrator.

At the National Municipal League, 3, the Illinois Municipal League, 4, the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, 5, large tax-free foundations, 6, the Department of Business and Economic Development, 7, large investment corporations and countless other groups of planners.

Then there are the many followers who go along with the "con game."

An example of the "con game" in action is the East-West Gateway Commission. This commission originally came into being by self-appointed individuals. Now they control most all federal monies coming into this area.

Another powerful, non-elected group is the Southwest Illinois Metropolitan Planning Commission.

These comprehensive planning agencies have fantastic power over our cities, counties and all property therein. Why because they control our money?

We need more local government control—not less. Smaller units of government are more efficient. They are more efficient. The officials are always closer to the people and their problems, and they are elected locally.

Local government is not what they call "home rule." Home rule is metro government, which is an unrepresentative type of government.

To do this, we must write a new, permissive and flexible constitution which will make it easier to make the transition to a regional or metro form of government which transcends state boundaries and takes control from the people.

Who are these big-minded, powerful interests? They are: 1, the Committee process because elections can and sometimes do vote for someone other than the aspirant favored by a majority of the voters in their state. The vote by these largely anonymous people should be automatic, not dependent on their whims.

But because the U. S. does not want to leap from the frying pan to the fire, the Senate and 38 of the 50 states are unlikely to agree blindly with the 339-70 House vote for a direct popular election. Political authorities say that even though there are numerous instances of vote fraud in the past, they are minute compared to what could be expected if every vote had a nationwide rather than statewide impact.

Changes in the present system of choosing our president are called for, but they must be well thought out and must include adequate safeguards.

Smith Excellent Replacement for Dirksen in U. S. Senate—And Potentially as Leader

Appointment of Ralph T. Smith, Alton lawyer and Illinois Speaker of the House, as the new United States senator from Illinois is obviously pleasing to Quad-Cityans from a geographic standpoint.

He is the first native son in Granite City's 73-year history to serve in the Senate, the "world's most exclusive club." As a current and lifelong Madison county resident, he knows local needs and is in a position to do much toward meeting them. He gives the downstate region well-informed representation.

It is also a satisfying selection by Governor Ogilvie for other and more important reasons. The region has a need for enlightened and skilled legislative service and leadership, and few of the 100 members entered the Senate with such excellent lawmaking credentials and experience as Senator Smith takes to Washington.

A mature man with many years of active life still ahead of him, he is equipped to serve effectively from the day he takes office. An immediate test in what may be a close vote on the minority leadership, the added post held by the senator whom he replaces, Smith is not in the running for leader due to his lack of prior Washington experience.

In a comment when his appointment was announced, he astutely said that he cannot hope to be "another Everett Dirksen" but that he will try to be "the best Ralph Smith I can." This is all that can be expected—and all that will be needed.

His handsome and intelligent appearance, ready smile, relaxed but assured manner and deep, resonant voice help make him believable in his new position. And it is not a facade. As a student in Granite City grade and high schools, a university scholar, as an accountant with an eloquent public speaker, as a Navy instructor, as a wartime gunboat commander in the Pacific war zone and as an effective legislator, he has consistently won friends and admiration.

Electing eight times to the House of Representatives, he advanced steadily in influence and respectability. He has been elected to office for both the 1967-68 and 1969-70 bienniums.

Under his guidance, there generally was an air of calm efficiency, and the record was one of successful leadership. The legislative program which resulted was both voluminous and significant, geared to problem solving even at the expense of initial popularity.

Although he would not be referred a Cook county resident for the vacancy, one of the Chicago newspapers concluded that Senator Smith's combination of courage, political expertise and judgment make him an outstanding choice for the Senate.

We agree, and wonder if his widely-recognized craftsmanship—he knows how to get legislators together and get things done—will someday give Illinois yet another U. S. Senate Republican leader.

FROM THE STATEHOUSE

By LT. GOV. PAUL SIMON

What's Your Handicap?

Recently I went to Carthage, Illinois to join some local citizens in paying tribute to Phillip Hartzell on his 50th birthday.

"That's hardly worth writing a column about," you may be thinking.

But if you saw Phil Hartzell and knew his story, you could not help but be moved.

When he was five or six years old, Phil Hartzell fell victim to muscular dystrophy. Despite that, he went to grade school, high school and college.

Because of his physical handicap he could not secure employment, but he maintained an intense interest in better government. During my more than 14 years in state government, one of those who has regularly sent suggestions, criticisms and words of encouragement has been Phil Hartzell.

Phil Hartzell today does not have the use of his legs, can barely move his arms, and physically is about as badly handicapped as anyone can be. Yet Phil Hartzell has had infinitely more impact on government than has the average citizen.

I took my two children, ages 5 and 8, to Phil Hartzell's 50th birthday party because I wanted them to see and meet this living hero.

There are other examples around the state, of course. One is Roger Irving, executive assistant to State Auditor Michael Howlett. As a result of injuries sustained in the Air Force during World War II, he lost the use of his legs and hands.

His physical handicap is not as great as Phil Hartzell's, but it is enough that most of us, I'm afraid, would just withdraw from life.

Yet few people in the nation contribute as much to state government as Roger Irving.

Willard Lee is an attorney and a key man in the Illinois Department of Revenue. If you have had a particularly complicated problem with the Department of Revenue, you probably have been referred to Willard Lee.

If you talked to him over the phone, you did not realize one thing: Willard Lee is blind.

Each of them—Phil Hartzell, Roger Irving and Willard Lee—has contributed to government in different, but important, ways.

And each of them should be an inspiration to citizens whose only handicap is indifference.

Big Potential for Downtown Area

(Granite City Long-Range Plan)

Establishment of a department store in the Central Business District (CBD) would provide a greater variety to the consumer, including such fields as apparel, furniture, appliances, restaurants and cocktail lounges would strengthen the district and draw more people. As a result, peripheral business would benefit.

Other proposals include improvement accessibility on the CBD, additional parking spaces, renovation of buildings and new establishments.

Granite City has too much of an investment in the CBD to ignore making the needed improvements. And there is a potential for increased business if such improvements are carried out.

An analysis of household income and income distribution provides an index to the economic health of the community. The standard of living within the community, and the quantity and quality of services to be offered by both government and private agencies.

In 1961, over three-fourths of the households in Granite City had a "disposable income" of $4000 or more, and approximately one-third had a "disposable income" of $7000 or more.

In regard to disposable income, Granite City surpasses the major communities of Madison and St. Clair counties with the exception of Edwardsville.

The primary reason for the relatively high disposable income in Granite City is the fact that the community is highly industrialized and is a surplus job center in Madison county.

Of the 12,800 households, 970 had effective buying income of $24,000, 1903 had $20,000-$24,000, 2770 were in the $10,000-$20,000 range, 2470 had $7,000-$10,000 and 1487 households had $1,000 or over.

Next: Family income.

Ban Conflicts That Harm Innocent

(Illinois Retail Merchants Association)

Now that many ministers and others feel it is their province to speak for the grape pickers in California to the point that they want to scissor the retailers who sell grapes, other retailers who sell to work in the state are choosing up sides. We have seen several bumper signs "Buy more grapes." They had better get a move on.

Action Tonight On 2-Year Pact, School Calendar

The agreement that led to launching of the 1969-70 term in the Granite City school system last week is to receive formal approval by the school board during a special meeting at 7:30 tonight.

The new working agreement, covering a two-year period, is long and detailed.

The period since the pact was mutually endorsed by Teachers' Local 743 and school officials Sept. 12 has been used to "cross the 'T's' and dot the 'I's' carefully" and to the task of preparing duplicate copies.

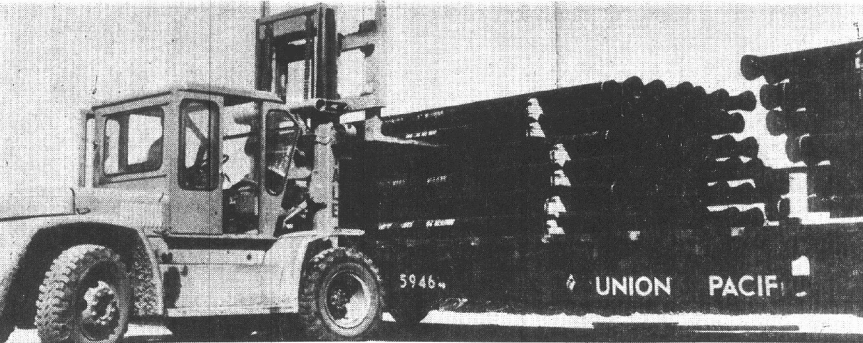

The meeting was called by President E. W. Walton Thursday afternoon for tonight to "consider and act upon a report concerning the status of collective bargaining negotiations with Local 743, American Federation of Teachers" and to "take such action as may be necessary or indicated to adopt a revised school calendar for the 1969-70 school year."

Next regular board meeting is set for next Monday, Sept. 29, when final budget action is scheduled. Board meetings are held at 20th and Adams streets.

$150,000 Suit Filed Over Store Accident

A suit for $150,000 was filed last week for Richard Bain against Tri-City Grocery Co. in Madison county circuit court at Edwardsville.

According to the complaint, Bain, an employee of the Wagner 7-Up Bottling Co., was making a delivery to the Tri-City store at 19th street and Cleveland blvd. last July 23 when he fell over debris in the basement, sustaining injuries and aggravating a prior physical condition. Negligence was charged.

(Third of four articles on Amsted Industries, parent company of the American Steel Foundries. This article follows the diversification program from 1939 through the mid-1960s, when the present name of the firm was adopted.)

In January 1959, an energetic young man, 44 years old, was elected president and chief executive officer of American Steel Foundries. He had started with the company in 1936 as a trainee in the accounting department. His name was Joseph B. Lanterman.

His selection was significant, for under his leadership the company has had . . . and continues to have . . . its greatest growth.

When Lanterman was elected president in 1959, the company's sales were $94,500,000. Today they are well over twice that much. In the 10 years, 19 plants have been added.

New Ventures
Lanterman's philosophy of sound, purposeful expansion quickly brought results. In June 1959, precision machine tools were added to the company's product line. This date marked the acquisition of South Bend Lathe, a South Bend, Ind., firm which had won a world-wide reputation for quality products since its founding in 1906.

Lathes were the principal product, and they had taken the South Bend name to nearly every foreign country as well as into machine shops and schools across the U.S.

The year 1959 also marked the establishment of a corporate research center in Bensenville, Ill.

Growth from Within
Although there was much emphasis on the new, opportunities in older portions of the business were not neglected.

For example, a company-owned iron foundry was standing, unused, against the backdrop of cornfields in Council Bluffs, Ia. In its heyday, it produced iron railroad wheels, but it had been closed when the company's new steel wheels replaced iron ones.

Instead of merely selling the building, the company's management people took a deeper look. They knew that demand for water, one of man's most precious natural resources, was rapidly increasing. In turn, cast iron pressure pipe was needed to carry this water into new homes and factories.

The company moved fast. By mid-1960, the old iron foundry had been converted into one of the most modern pipe plants in the country.

It served 12 Midwestern states, and the company had a new product line with great growth potential.

Amsted Is Born
Through acquisitions and new product development, the company was now in a variety of fields . . . pipe to carry water, roller chains and sprockets for mechanical power transmission, machine tools, protective coatings for oil and gas pipelines, as well as its traditional railroad equipment products.

The name, "American Steel Foundries," no longer reflected the overall scope of corporate activities. The company had simply outgrown its name.

Nearly 7000 new names were considered. Amsted Industries was picked. It kept the company in about the same position in the New York Stock exchange listings. It contained the key letters of the old American Steel Foundries name. It had good audio-visual characteristics.

An opinion survey also showed that it conveyed the image of a progressive, diversified company. Stockholders approved the new name at the company's annual meeting on Jan. 23, 1969, in Chicago. The proud American Steel Foundries name was not discarded. It was retained to identify the company's original steel foundry operations, and today American Steel Foundries is one of 10 Amsted operating units.

Expanding Earnings Base
The year 1962 brought more than a new name to the company.

The initial marketing experience with cast iron pressure pipe had been excellent, and another pipe company was purchased for cash. It was the R. D. Wood Co. of Florence, N. J., an iron pipe produced which served the New England and mid-Atlantic states from its plant on the banks of the Delaware River.

A new Amsted company was formed to encompass the pipe operations—Griffin Pipe Products Co. Today, it is one of the largest segments of the company's business.

In addition, 1962 saw the acquisition of Johnson Machine and Press, an Elkhardt, Ind., machine tool producer. Its product line consisted of straight side, inclinable, horn, and gap presses used in a wide variety of metal forming operations. Because it was in the machine tool area, it became, part of South Bend Lathe.

Looking Overseas
The 1962 expansion was not limited to domestic markets. The company also purchased a 60% interest in a West German roller chain and sprocket firm which is now known as Amsted-Siemag Kette GmbH.

These acquisitions turned out to be only a beginning; more companies joined Amsted in a steady succession.

In January 1963, another firm was added to the Griffin Pipe operation. It was Oconee Clay Products Co., and its plant in Milledgeville, Ga., manufactures vitrified clay pipe for the Southeast.

A line of steel excavating teeth was acquired in 1964.

Vast Plant Acquired
In 1965, the company purchased a huge, 675,000-square-foot plant in South Bend, Ind., and South Bend Lathe was moved into a new, modern production facility.

In August 1966, Deka Drill Corp. was acquired. This Cincinnati, Ill., company turns out multiple spindle drilling and tapping machines and it, like Johnson Machine, was placed under the South Bend Lathe umbrella.

Amsted had changed rapidly. But far greater progress was ahead.

The next article, last of this series, will trace Amsted's development in the closing years of the present decade, a period which is shaping the company's future direction.

Zone Change Hearing

The City Plan Commission will conduct a hearing at 1:15 p.m. Oct. 5 on a petition by Jo Ann Williams for a change in Zoning of property at 1309 Edwardsville road for operation of a beauty shop. A C-1 commercial classification is sought for the property now zoned R-3 residential.

No Changes Announced For Area Draft Calls

No change in draft quotas for this month and October are expected by the county selective service office in Edwardsville, it was learned today.

A spokesman said any reduction in draft calls cannot be expected until October when the quotas for November are announced.

This month, 11 Quad-Cities are to be drafted next Friday morning when 38 other youths are to report for pre-induction physical examinations.

Quotas set for October include one of the largest draft calls in recent years for the Quad-Cities—42 young men to report for induction on Oct. 10. On the same date, 38 other youths are to report for pre-draft physicals.

A workman's compensation suit for $25,000 was filed last week for Sam McGlawn against the United States Fidelity & Guaranty Co. and James Henderson, agent, in Madison county circuit court at Edwardsville as a result of an accident Sept. 14, 1967, when McGlawn was employed by the American Phosphate Co. of Granite City.

According to the complaint, McGlawn's throat was cut by a broken handle caught in a machine which did not have adequate and proper safety devices while he was at work at the local plant. He alleged the insurance company failed to inspect the plant and require the machines to be equipped with adequate safety devices.

Heath and Koenig Nuptials At First Presbyterian Church

First United Presbyterian Church was the scene of the wedding Saturday evening of Miss Dianne Koenig, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Koenig of Ferguson, Mo., and Philip Heath, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Heath, 2305 Gary avenue.

Arrangements of white flowers and greenery decorated the altar for the 7 o'clock ceremony performed by Rev. David B. Maxon D.D., and candles lighted the aisle through which the procession passed.

Kenneth MacClatchey presided at the organ and accompanied the vocalist, William Meyer, as he sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because."

In marriage by her father, the bride wore a classic gown of imported Chantilly lace, held securely by a necklace with seed pearls, and scallops extended from the neck to the hem line of the cage skirt.

The wedding reception was held at the home of the bride, 2305 Gary avenue. A profile headpiece of pearls entwined with lace and pearls held securely by a necklace with seed pearls, and scallops extended from the neck to the hem line of the cage skirt.

The bride and groom are graduates of Granite City high school, and the bridegroom attended IU-SW. He is employed in St. Louis.

The rehearsal dinner was given Friday evening by the bridegroom's parents at the bridegroom's home.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Mrs. Robert Brown of St. Angelo, Tex., Mr. and Mrs. George Heath and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Crawford of Lawrenceville, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas of Indianapolis, Ind.

Miss Diane Wyatt, maid of honor, and Miss Christine Wolpewicz and Miss Sheryl Blochberger, bridesmaids, were dressed alike in apricot tulle and Empire bodices accented in the center fronts of the bodices with Venice lace motifs. Their brief tea cup was a arrangement of fall flowers tied with satin ribbons. Miss Rose Marie Hackett served as maid of honor, with Miss Virginia Ann Butts, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid and Miss Verna Barnett, sister of the bride, junior bridesmaid.

Shirley Lynn Barnett, sister of the bride, was flower girl, with Paul Tillman Barnett, brother of the bride, as ring bearer.

DINETTE set,

Venice Council OK's McKinley Bridge Budget

A new October 1969 September 1970 operating budget of $339,055 for the Venice-owned McKinley bridge was given final approval by the Venice city council Thursday night. The new appropriation is $14,340 higher than the $314,715 budget last year.

The budget, which was unchanged from the tentative appropriation figures adopted earlier in the year subject to approval of Hardesty & Hanover, bridge engineers, was adopted during a meeting held one night earlier than the usual Friday night council sessions.

The new operating fund includes $25 and $30 monthly pay increases for toll collectors and an increased reserve fund for painting of $20,000, up from $10,000.

Mayor John E. Lee pointed out that the appropriation for insurance is reduced in the new budget to $45,000 from last year's $72,000 because of a reserve in that fund.

Total salary for 11 toll collectors amounts to $67,980, up from $64,680 last year. The appropriation for payment of taxes to the state of Missouri was cut from $66,000 last year to $36,000 in the new budget.

Approve Road Bill
The council approved payment of $523 to MacIair Asphalt Co. of Collinsville as the final amount due on the $19,005 Weaver street resurfacing project. The city had previously paid $15,882 of the bill.

City Treasurer Bernard Anderson reported that revenue during August amounted to $31,950, with $50,000 of it representing a distribution in 1968 city taxes. With a balance of $17,043 at the beginning of the

'Unusual' Indian Axe Held by Collector Here

A collection of Indian artifacts owned by a Granite City Steel Co. employee contains an 'unusual' axe, according to an archaeologist at Southern Illinois University - Southwestern campus.

Edward Seidler of Chester, who maintains a local address at 2128 Cleveland blvd. while at work here as a cover crane man, is the collector.

The archaeologist said the axe was formed in the period from 700 B.C. to 300 A.D. The three-pound tool, formed by beating it with other rocks, was not completed by the Indian, however, and if used for heavy work, it probably would have broken, he said.

The rock is a type of limestone, but heavier and not as porous. It was found near Chester by Seidler's son, now in military service.

Though Indian axes of a later vintage were made of harder stone and were sharper, many were smaller and did not come prior to the Woodland period of Indian culture.

Nixon Cancels Draft Call For 2-Month Period

Madison county Selective Service officials are awaiting further directives today on the cancellation of all November and December calls, ordered Friday by President Nixon.

Under the directive, all draftees scheduled for induction in October will be called over a three-month period ending Dec. 31.

In a statement from the White House at Washington, President Nixon said that reduced military requirements—due in part to Vietnam troop withdrawals—made it possible to cancel scheduled draft calls of 32,000 men in November and 18,000 in December at the national level.

While the order came close to an actual two-month suspension of the draft, the 29,000 men originally slated to be drafted in October are to be called over October, November and December.

Would Space Calls
Selective Service officials said the matter has not been finally decided, but indicated they favor calling 10,000 men in October, 10,000 in November and the remaining 9,000 in December.

President Nixon also said that if Congress fails to act on the draft reform legislation he proposed earlier this year, he plans an executive order which would sharply reduce the number of years in which young men face the uncertainty of possible induction.

Officials said one plan being considered would make 19-year-olds the most vulnerable to the draft, along with men in the 20-to-25 age bracket with expired student deferments.

Hearings on the proposed standards were held in this area in early August.

The board also is to consider implementation of amendments to the Illinois Air Pollution Control Act, including addition of a hearing officer, employment of a staff, securing of office space and coordination of the enforcement program with the attorney general's office.

Action on a number of enforcement actions pending in the various parts of the state also is scheduled, and the board is to hear reports on hearings in six pending cases.

"Alcoholics Rehabilitation Community Home"

Known as . . . "ARCH"

THE BRIDGE TO SOBRIETY . . .

Budgeted $8,000

WHAT IS "A.R.C.H."?

A.R.C.H. stands for Alcoholics Rehabilitation Community Home and as the name implies, the program has as its primary objective the rehabilitation of alcoholics in an environment that enhances the alcoholics becoming a responsible and productive member of society. It is operated by a Board of Directors composed of various individuals representing different segments of the community.

HOW DOES THE PROGRAM WORK?

The door of A.R.C.H. is always open to any individual afflicted with the disease of alcoholism. The one principal requirement for entry is the conviction of the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors that the applicant has a sincere desire to stop drinking. An alcoholic admitted to residency in the home may stay as long as he feels it is necessary, as long as he continues in a sincere desire for sobriety and follows a few simple rules of conduct.

While a resident, the individual becomes acquainted with Alcoholics Anonymous and its program, with meetings held at A.R.C.H. every Thursday at 8 P.M. which are open to the public.

The residents also maintain the home in neat, running order. They help prepare the meals, do the marketing, wash the dishes and perform other household chores.

It is up to the man himself to judge when he has arrested his drinking habit and to become a responsible and productive member of the community.

WHERE TO GET HELP?

The official disaster agency for the nation, the American Red Cross provides emergency care and long-term assistance for all who need it.

THE AMERICAN SOCIAL HEALTH ASSOCIATION

Budgeted $800

The specific social ills concerning the American Social Health Association are drug abuse, venereal disease and commercialized prostitution. These ills stem from a factor common to all three—family failure. The cost of these in dollars is estimated in billions. The price of human misery cannot be measured. To reduce this waste ASHA's program provides voluntary leadership, research, consultation and information.

Today the heroin addict is only one index of the problem of drug dependence and abuse in the United States. There is also: The 12 year old glue sniffer, the pot head, the "hippie", the LSD tripper, the regular user of pep pills, excessive users of barbituates and tranquilizers.

The American Social Health Association is the only national voluntary agency giving major emphasis to work on drug abuse, venereal disease and commercial prostitution. The nature of these problems and activities compels ASHA to focus on youth and to work through institutions effecting youth development.

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

CAHOKIA MOUNDS COUNCIL

Budgeted $54,500

The Cahokia Mound Council, Boy Scouts of America, is FIFTY years old, and has served all of the communities of the Tri-City United Fund throughout these years.

America is a disturbed land. Problems mount and frustrations surround us. Young people are deeply involved, whether it be discontent, demonstrations and riots in our cities, or our escalating crime rate. Some of our youth seem to lack the desire to relate to this nation's traditions. They are not accepting the responsibilities of a free society as we know them; some are refusing it to inherit the leadership we want to pass on to them, and it becomes readily apparent that a positive force to capture their attention and interest is essential.

SERVING THE BOY

For 58 years, the Boy Scouts of America has cultivated in boys a respect for God and country and a desire for active minds and bodies that will enable them to make the right choices in preparation for responsibilities as citizens.

CUB SCOUTING

This is a home and family-centered program for boys 8 through 10 years of age. It features a weekly den meeting directed by a Den Mother or Den Leader and a monthly gathering of dens at a pack meeting under a Cubmaster.

BOY SCOUTING

An outdoor program of Scoutcraft and leadership skills, for boys 11 through 17 years old, organized into patrols under their own leadership, within a troop.

EXPLORING

This is for young men of high school age, who plan and run their post programs under elected leadership and guided by an adult Explorer Advisor. The selected programs identify an Explorer post as either "general interest" or "special interest".

If your son wishes to join in any of these programs he may ask a Scout who belongs, in his neighborhood, or he may call the Cahokia Mound Council Service Center—876-0686 and we will be ready to help him join the program phase of his interest.

QUAD-CITY CATHOLIC CHARITIES . . .

Budgeted $36,000

Catholic Charities is a private agency, licensed by the State of Illinois to offer family and child welfare services to residents of the community. It respects the dignity and value of each human being, and is mindful that the individual's relationship to God is of utmost importance.

Individuals and families are referred to us by the clergy, schools, physicians, attorneys, courts, other agencies and by those who have previously benefitted from our service.

Catholic Charities helps families and individuals in matters involving family and marital discord, unmarried parenthood, personality adjustment, parent-child relationships. The agency places children in adoption and provides temporary care in foster homes and institutions. Emergency financial aid is provided.

Professional counselors assist in strengthening family life by helping families to face and handle their problems. Services are offered which lead to deeper insights into difficulties and to satisfactory adjustments.

The benefit to the community which Catholic Charities provides is due to devoted, qualified staff, a loyal advisory board, the staffs of our child care institution and maternity home, an excellent working relationship with other public and private agencies, and to dedicated foster parents and volunteer helpers.

The local Catholic Charities office is staffed by Msgr. Wm. J. Cassin, Director, Mrs. Lorraine Parkinson, Social Worker, Mrs. Mary Alyce Beardslee, Adoption Worker, and Mrs. Corrine Kreher, Secretary.

COORDINATED YOUTH SERVICES . . .

Budgeted $28,500

Someone Cares . . .

The Community Cares.

This is the most important theme expressed by the work of the Co-Ordinated Youth Services.

This theme along with the professional skills of this Agency offers much needed help for youths finding difficulty in coping with adjustment problems in our highly industrialized community.

The Agency cooperates closely with all organizations and utilizes resources available to the area.

A total of 1448 cases were aided with a variety of problems in 1968. These cases involved delinquency, job counselling, and young people on probation, as well as family problems.

FAMILY SERVICE AGENCY

OF SOUTHWESTERN ILLINOIS

Budgeted $3,500

Family Service Agency of Southwestern Illinois has been extending its services of marriage, family and individual counselling to residents of the Tri-Cities Area United Fund for many years, having been founded in 1957. The Agency is non-profit, non-sectarian and is supported by the Tri-Cities United Fund (1969 allocation $3500) other United Funds and fees.

Those wishing professional counselling for an inter-personal family problem, marriage or individual adjustment problem can arrange an appointment by telephoning the main office at 397-2542 or if they wish an appointment in Granite City they may telephone 876-2383 and ask to speak to a counsellor from Family Service Agency.

All the counsellors have Masters Degrees in Social Work with special training in the area of family and marriage counselling. Fees are charged based on income and number of dependents, but service is not denied to those unable to pay a fee. In 1968, 73 families from the Tri-Cities Area received counselling services from our Agency.

The counselling interviews are confidential and normally last for about one hour each. We find that most of the families can be helped adequately in approximately 6-12 sessions.

The Agency is governed by a Board of Directors, made up of residents of each area we serve. Felicia D. Koch, M.D., Randall Robertson and Terryl Francis are the board members from the Tri-Cities Area. Mrs. Thomas (Anita) Kolesa, M.S.W., a resident of Granite City, has the primary responsibility of counselling with residents of the Tri-Cities Area. Mr. Harold L. Bruns, M.S.W. is the Executive Director of the Agency.

Budgeted $6,800

The purposes of this association are to promote the general welfare of all mentally retarded regardless of age, degree, or type of retardation and regardless of whether they attend public, private, or religious schools, residential or day, or whether they reside at home or in institutions.

The Illinois A.R.C. has been very active in securing legislation which will provide help for the retarded, the bill making it mandatory to provide public school classes available to all eligible retardates is an outstanding example. The N.A.R.C. has been active in developing a better understanding of the problems of retardation by the public. Research related to this handicap is a major effort on the national level.

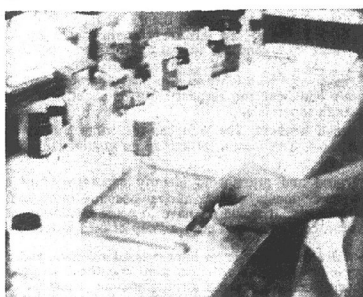

Through the benefits received from the United Fund the G.C.A.R. has been able to provide many programs locally. A Two-week summer day camp is held each year for the local Children at Wilson Park. ILLINOIS CHILDREN'S HOME and AID SOCIETY

Alone . . . afraid . . . unmarried . . . and pregnant . . .

Nineteen-year-old Linda needed help and called the Illinois Children's Home and Aid Society, one of the participants in the Tri-Cities Area United Fund. Headquartered in Chicago, the statewide private agency has regional offices in Alton, Rockford and Urbana. Residents of Granite City, Madison, Mitchell and Venice are served through the Alton office at 10 East Broadway Street.

When Linda first called the Society's maternity unit, she talked to a sympathetic caseworker who gave her what she needed most: reassurance. Reassurance that someone cared about her as an individual and wanted to help her. Equally important, the caseworker helped her to see that from this point on, she was not alone; her case worker would be with her every step of the way.

As Linda began to understand herself better, she also developed the confidence to make her own decision about her baby's future. She and Mrs. Martinson discussed the pros and cons of adoption, as well as the advantages and disadvantages of keeping her baby. Since Linda's questions were answered frankly and honestly, she knew that it was her decision alone.

Although she knew that she could support herself again after the birth of her baby, she felt that without a husband, she could not give her baby the kind of life that adoptive parents could. Deciding to give up her baby was a difficult decision to make; yet, Linda could face the future with the knowledge that she had done what was best for her child.

Miss Mary Yowell, 462-2714, Illinois Children's Home and Aid Society,
10 East Broadway Street, Alton, Illinois 62002.

When it was time for Linda to move into a maternity home, her caseworker from the Illinois Children's Home and Aid Society, Mrs. Martinson, (right) helped her become acquainted with her new surroundings.

Teen-agers have a "place to go", and help to plan and carry out their own activities. United Fund allocations augment tax funds and admission fees for dances.

In the twelve-month period from May 1968 through April 1969, teen-agers used Teen Town over 30,000 times.

Supervisor: Jerry Zahn.

Locations: Madison Memorial Center and West Madison Memorial Center.

PROTESTANT WELFARE ASSOCIATION, INC.

Budgeted $19,500

Protestant Welfare Association is in its 16th year of serving the Quad-Cities in an emergency capacity. Today we have 36 churches, their pastors and laymen, plus 15 delegates at large, working together to promote the "moral, social, and spiritual betterment of the people". Protestant Welfare is located at 2052 Edison Avenue with offices and clothing and household articles in this building. The agency renders service without charge to families, individuals and children within the community who are in need, or who seek special assistance in solving the complex problems of life. Protestant Welfare respects the confidence and religious convictions of all who make application for assistance and cooperates with all local, county, state and federal agencies, including all churches, for the betterment of health, welfare and education of the Quad-Cities community. Wherever possible, we endeavor to preserve and strengthen the home so that children may reach their maturity without the frustration and fears attendant upon broken homes.

During 1968 we handled 506 cases involving 2167 persons. We issued 423 Relief Orders, as follows: 275 food, 12 rent, 4 miscellaneous, 38 utilities, 45 medical, and 49 new shoes and clothing, or a total of $7046.17. We also gave 182 store room orders of clothing and shoes, valued at approximately $1757.00. In 1968 the approximate value of household articles and furniture which we gave away was $832.00.

"SALVATION ARMY"

Budgeted $24,000

A question often asked members of the Salvation Army is this one: "Is the Salvation Army more than a welfare organization?" The Salvationist (for that is what our members are called) quickly replies, "Far more." To this reply another question follows, "But isn't welfare work all you do?" This article will attempt to answer these questions by answering this one, "What is the Salvation Army?"

Probably there is a great deal of misconception and confusion concerning us, and justifiably so. Our social service work is well known. Yet we hold worship services, officiate at marriages, conduct funerals and bear the responsibility of all other ministerial duties, including succoring of the afflicted and sorrowing and extensive youth supervision.

Salvation Army Officers are ordained clergymen as well as registered social workers. The wife has the same training as her husband and holds the same position and rank and can officiate as her spouse. The woman officer is as qualified to preach a sermon as she is to serve in an emergency canteen during a disaster.

Since there are some who do not fully understand our principals and purpose and attempt to identify separate Army efforts either as "welfare" or "religious", thus striving to divide our work into two segments, a clear answer becomes more and more important to us and to the public. If we are to give any classification to our work, it would all have to come under the heading "religious" because all Salvation Army service rendered is a result of Christian conviction and even a "cup of cold water" is given in the Master's Name.

Our statement of purpose says, "That branch of the Church known as the Salvation Army is an international religious and charitable movement, showing its love for God and concern for the needs of humanity through a spiritual ministry whose purpose is to preach the Gospel. It is also expressed by a wide variety of social services extended without discrimination as to race or creed."
